BRITISH ADVANCE NEAR BAPAUME

ENTIRE PICARDY SECTOR MAY BE WIPED OUT BY HAIG.

(By the Associated Press)
The British troops along the extreme northern sector of the Picardy battle line are advancing at a comparatively rapid rate. Their attack in the Albert region was continued early this morning and according to unofficial reports from the field, had reached Henin village on the Cojeul river, which is five miles southwest of Arras. The advancing British appear to be closing in on Bapaume, which is the reputed keystone of the German positions between Arras and the Somme river. The Germans have been forced to give up several towns just north of Bapaume, while the British are also reported operating just west of the town. West of Noyon the French have forced a crossing of the Divette river at Ercourt, three miles from Noyon and are maintaining their strong pressure from the south and east. General Mangin's troops are pressing close to the dominating heights around 'Chemin des Dames from the west, which is an increasing menace to the Germans along the Vesle river.

Theodore Richards, president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, was born in Germantown, Pa., on January 31, 1868, and is the son of William T. Richards, a famous American painter of marine and landscapes, and Anna Matlack Richards, well known for her poetical writings.

MR. FENTEM MAKES APPEAL FOR MEN

By A. L. Fentem
Chairman of Local Labor Board
The county has been facing crises ever since it entered the world-war and has invariably, in a manner most resourceful, taken care of them as they came, but the appeal of the government for one million unskilled laborers should cause the country to open its eyes wide and take notice of a number of conditions that must be taken care of at once if the war is to be pressed to an early issue.

A million men is an army within itself and yet we have it, but it is scattered—tied up in industries that have little or no significance in the prosecution of the war.

This army must be mobilized and that immediately. The government is offering attractive positions to all kind of labor under the best of terms, but the response has been far short of the needs and only two ways are open for the government to supply the need. Either there must be a heartier response on the part of labor to the volunteer call or the government will be compelled to resort to the draft.

Additional quotas of unskilled labor are called for today amounting to 876,150 men, Oklahoma's quota being 7,500. The Ada office has already sent out to various points over a hundred men, but more must follow these if this office is to make its quota.

It must come to this point, and come to it soon, that any man who is capable of doing the kind of work that the government needs—and that is any able-bodied man—and persists in following non-productive pursuits will be regarded and treated as a slacker as certainly as the man who attempts to dodge the draft.

Men who are already employed on government work, farmers, heads of business establishments that are essential to community life on a war basis, are needed where they are. All others are needed by the government at once.

Information can be gotten at the office of the Community Labor Employment Board and this office should be kept pretty busy for a while by patriotic men who are ready to answer the call of their country.

House Sparrow in England.
In the course of a campaign in England against the swarming and mischievous house sparrow the services of children and "sparrow clubs" were solicited. Bad results were the consequence, since little discrimination was used, and every sort of small bird was mistaken for the proscribed sparrow, and thousands of useful insect eating birds were destroyed, so that exactly the opposite of what was intended was accomplished.

The battle just developing on the plains of Picardy may develop into the greatest battle in all history. To the Hun it may spell utter ruin. If, perchance, he concludes to retreat it will be an acknowledgment that he has met his match. Again, if he stands and takes punishment, the slaughter that Field Marshal Haig is prepared to inflict will demand the heaviest toll that has ever been levied on troops in all the world's history. The eyes of the world are focused on the struggle well along on its way, and millions of mothers are praying that the despised Hun will pay the price that outrage! humanity demands is justly his due.

The main interest of the people is that they be served in Congress by real men who believe in the justice and necessity of this war, and believe in fighting it to a victorious finish in the shortest possible time. Whether the men that thus serve are Democrats or Republicans is of little importance. The questions that have heretofore divided the parties are no longer pending and it will be a good while before we return to them with our usual political animosity. There is only one question; and there is only one side to that question and that is the victorious side. All that is needed are far-reaching and loyal men who will give the best that is in them to the study of the best way to win the war and the issues involved in it.—Hughes County Tribune.

NEGROES AS WAITERS.

In regard to employing negro men as waiters in cafes and restaurants, A. C. Young, manager of the New Harris Hotel, suggests that no good would be accomplished for one manager to refuse to employ these fellows and at the same time other managers employ them. In other words, if one hotel refuses to hire them, they can go elsewhere and get the same kind of work, thereby benefitting the government in no way. He suggests that if the State Council of Defense would take this matter up and have it apply to all towns in the state, the employment of these negro men would cease.

Members of the Executive Committee of the County Council of Defense say this matter will be put before the State Council, and we really believe good will result. In towns the size of Ada the employment of negroes really amounts to little, as there are not more than a few at the most. The writer, however, has been in many towns in this and other states in the last two or three months. In places like Oklahoma City negro men by the score are thus engaged. In fact, if the negroes who are thus employed in the larger cities of Oklahoma were put in the fields, the farm labor shortage would not be so acute, and there would be more labor available for the heavy job around government works.

Mr. Young is anxious to do whatever will help out at this time, just as practically all hotel and restaurant men are. The fact that no concerted

Poor at Floggers.

A rather opinionated party confided to the News-Capital man last night, "I'm off So-and-So's grocery store."

Naturally, he was asked the reason. "Too much praying," sententiously.

Pressed to explain himself, he continued: "President Wilson, you know, some time ago, evidently believing in the efficacy of prayers asked the people of the nation to make a one-minute prayer at 11 o'clock each day. Well, today I toddled into So-and-So's for some groceries and embarrassingly waited, feverishly shifting weight from one leg to another while he, with face giving evidence of unfathomable emotions, finished his petitions, but to whom, I am not definitely persuaded, for when he got up from his knees I said 'What's these here beans worth a pound?' and he replied, without batting an eye, '21 cents a pound, two pounds for 45 cents.' And bust my hide if I didn't take two pounds! That's what praying does for me; and do you know I would have never got wise if my old girl hadn't flogged it out for me, on paper, with a lead pencil, right before my eyes. On top of that I learned, by inquiring, that beans are only 18 cents a pound in any other store in McAlester."

Moral? There's none. It is quite palpable, however, that our friends confuses prayers with mathematics. And too many people expect Divine interposition in matters that involve nothing more than selfish pecuniary profit.—McAlester News-Capital.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. ## TRAGEDY OF LUXEMBURG

HUNS CALL LUXEMBURG "GERMAN TOWN." MANY CITIZENS IN FRENCH ARMY.

(By the Associated Press)

Amsterdam, Aug. 24.—A recent semi-official statement published in Germany describing Luxembourg as a "German town" has attracted attention again to the bitter lot of the people of Luxembourg, whose Princess vainly appealed to the Germans to spare her little country in the early days of the German incursion into Belgium.

For four years now, the citizens of Luxembourg have lived isolated under the yoke of German military domination. Three thousand Luxemburgers have escaped into France and joined the French army.

It is true that Luxembourg has not faced, as Belgium and Serbia have, the devastation brought in defensive fighting on her own soil, but it has come by air, and just as it has been necessary for the Entente airmen to bomb German billets in Belgium and French towns, so they have frequently had occasion to bomb Luxembourg and with deadly effect.

German propagandists in Luxembourg, as in Belgium, have constantly attempted to rouse hostility to the Entente by exploiting these air raids but their efforts have proved unsuccessful, and the people of Luxembourg persisted despite all propaganda, in regarding the German invader as the real culprit, recognizing clearly that Luxembourg is raided only because the German army is there.

The Luxembourg Parliament and government have longed protests at Berlin against the action of the German army in placing anti-aircraft guns around the city of Luxembourg.

"KAISER" PICTURE WILL OPEN MONDAY

"To Hell with the Kaiser," Great Screen Classics, Inc. Production, at Liberty Theater.

"To Hell with the Kaiser," the great seven act Screen Classics, Inc., patriotic production, will open a two day engagement Monday at the Liberty Theater. "To Hell with the Kaiser" is the most vital of all the pictures dealing with the world war. It strips bare the vile soul of Wilhelm of Hohenzollern, and shows the plot by which he and his "Totenkampfgang" hoped to get possession not only of Europe, but of America. "To Hell with the Kaiser" shows the final destination of this mad monarch, as well as relating his cruel deeds on earth.

A great cast has been chosen to interpret this magnificent picture, which has been directed by George Irving from the scenario by June Mathis, and photographed by George K. Hollister, a war-photographer and former war correspondent. George Irving also directed the Metro feature patriotic screen drama, "Her Boy." Lawrence Grant plays the Kaiser, Olive Tell, a beautiful star of both stage and screen, plays the leading feminine part of Alice Monroe. Betty Howe does a wonderful bit of work as her sister, Ruth, who meets a tragic fate in a Belgian convent at the hands of the Crown Prince. Frank Currier plays Prof. Monroe, and John Sunderland, himself an aviator, plays Winslow Dodge, who is seen in spectacular aeroplane flights which have a strong bearing on the story.

"To Hell with the Kaiser" has some of the most unusual features ever seen in a photodrama. The closing scenes contain a genuine surprise, combining beauty and forcefulness, and the Kaiser is shown in his base record has destined him.

Scenes among the American soldiers in the trenches are shown, and a genuine air-battle of two opposing aerial fleets is reproduced. The pages of history are unfolded to show the deeds of Frederick III. of Prussia, and the instruction of the present Kaiser in his war policies by Bismarck—then the events leading up to the present Romance plays its part in this amazing picture, showing that love and loyalty will outlive a thousand wars.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

by MARY CONNELL BOWEN

RICH COWS.

"It's hard not to be a snob," said Mrs. Jersey Cow.

"What's a snob?" asked Miss Jersey Cow.

"Ah, a snob my dear," said Mrs. Jersey, chewing her cud slowly, and looking at Miss Jersey out of big brown eyes, "is a person or a creature who thinks she is better than her neighbor—in fact almost better than anyone else."

"Dear me," said Miss Jersey, as she moved herself a little on her bed of cork which she thought was very comfortable, "and so you think you are better than I am?"

"Not a bit of it," said Mrs. Jersey, chewing a little faster.

"But you said so," persisted Miss Jersey. "I'm a neighbor of yours."

"Oh, that doesn't mean us—it means sometimes a creature thinks she is better than her neighbor. A snob is someone who thinks she is very superior and grand. And she won't bother to speak to those she thinks are beneath her."

"Such as worms, for example," said Miss Jersey.

"You are very exact, Miss Jersey, but I really think it's too much trouble for me to tell you any more about being a snob and what it means, for it takes my time away from chewing so much, and also it makes me think a little. I hate to think."

"So do I," said Miss Jersey, "but you must tell me if you think you are superior to me—or to someone else."

"I will do that," said Mrs. Jersey, "and then you will understand what a snob is."

"Continue," said Miss Jersey.

"You see," said Mrs. Jersey, and Miss Jersey interrupted her.

"I see all right—but I don't bother to think much about what I see. Do I have to think what you are going to show me?"

"No," said Mrs. Jersey, in a lazy, drawing voice, "I simply said, 'You see,' as one who says, 'You know.'"

"Oh, a great relief," said Miss Jersey.

"You know," commenced Mrs. Jersey, "that other cows aren't treated as we are. They have happy, country homes, but we belong to a very rich man and he is doing most amazing things to his cows. He is making us live in luxury, not mud or grass or in ordinary barns."

"Just the way we're living," said Miss Jersey. "It's delightful. But tell me about the other life," she added. "I was born in these rich surroundings."

"We have here, as you know, a stable made of marble. It's very grand. We have ventilators to give us good air and to take out bad air. We have fine heat when it's cold in the winter, and this stable is cooled in the summer and we have very fine grass, especially grown for us. We have nice clover, too."

"You know we each have our own porcelain drinking trough and place for food. And our beds are of smooth cork, and not like the ordinary floor of a barn."

"We have beautifully painted buildings, and wonderful woodwork, and we have our 'rooms' thoroughly cleaned by a hose each day."

"We are rich and aristocratic cows, we are very fine and healthy and we even have our hay cared for in a special barn so it will be in good condition when it is given to us."

"There really would be no excuse for us if we weren't healthy," said Miss Jersey, "if we are treated in this manner, and your description of the way we have everything done for us is quite, quite true."

"Do you wonder I feel snobbish and superior sometimes?" asked Mrs. Jersey.

"Well, I must say, I wouldn't feel that way if I were you. All these riches were just handed to you and you're not responsible for being a fine cow—it's because of the care and money which have been spent on you. And how often I wish that I knew what it was like in the world where there are really poor farmers who milk us themselves, and who do what they can for their cows."

"In short," continued Miss Jersey, "I think it's often very tiresome to be rich and fine. I wish I were dirty and poor once in awhile and had to hunt a little for my food, instead of having the best of it around me all the time."

"Dear me," said Mrs. Jersey, "you must certainly not be a snob, and really I admire you, for it's very hard to keep such ideas when you live in the richest cow stable in the country!"

AMERICAN FOOD SAVINGS LARGE

UNITED STATES SENT TO ALLIES 141,000,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT

AMERICAN FOOD SHIPMENTS TO ALLIES

MEAT
1916-17 ..... 2,166,500,000 lbs.
1917-18 ..... 3,011,100,000 lbs.

Increase. 844,600,000

CEREALS
1916-17 ..... 259,900,000 bu.
1917-18 ..... 340,800,000 bu.

Increase. 80,900,000 bu.

In spite of the subnormal food supply in this country the American people have been able to ship to the Allies as well as our own forces overseas 141,000,000 bushels of wheat, besides 844,600,000 pounds of meat, during the year ending June 30 last. This has been made possible by the wholehearted co-operation of the people who, besides practicing self-denial, have speeded up production and responded nobly to the appeal from abroad.

Food Administrator Hoover, in a letter to President Wilson, gives a brief summary of the results of food conservation in the United States and of the activities of the Food Administration to this end. The conservation measures have been put through practically on a voluntary basis which is regarded as a splendid tribute to the patriotism of the American people.

Meat shipments were increased 844,600,000 pounds during the first fiscal year, as compared with our meat exports during the year before America entered the war.

"The total value of these food shipments," Mr. Hoover wrote President Wilson, "which were in the main purchased through or with collaboration of the Food Administration, amount to, roundly, $1,400,000,000 during the fiscal year."

In 1916-17 the United States sent the Allies 2,166,500,000 pounds of meat. In 1917-18, with voluntary conservation practiced in America, and aided by extra weight of animals, we sent the Allies 3,011,100,000 pounds of meat, an increase of 844,600,000 pounds.

When the Food Administration began operations in the summer of 1917, this country was facing a large deficit in wheat. Counting in all carry-over wheat from the 1916 crop, we had at the beginning of the 1917 harvest year just enough wheat to take care of America's normal consumption,—not a bushel of surplus.

At the close of the 1917-18 harvest year the Food Administration's official reports showed that our total wheat shipments to the other side had been 141,000,000 bushels. Every bushel shipped was wheat saved by the American people from their normal consumption.

In cereal and cereal products reduced to terms of cereal bushels our shipments to Allied destinations were 840,800,000 bushels, 80,900,000 bushels more than the amount sent in 1916-17.

Included in these figures are 12,900,000 bushels of rye and the 141,000,000 bushels of saved wheat. In addition we sent the neutrals dependent on us 10,000,000 bushels of prime breadstuffs.

LIMIT ON SUGAR PROFIT

Retailers are not permitted to sell at more than one cent a pound above cost, according to notices which have been sent to merchants by R. D. Stone, deputy food administrator for Oklahoma, in charge of the fair price division.

Mr. Stone says he has found that retailers have been obtaining from 1 1/2 cents to 3 cents a pound profit on each pound of sugar sold. Where such margins of profit are found in the future action will be taken against the retailers on charges of profiteering.

Sugar Exports Small.
Only 797 tons of refined sugar were shipped from America to neutral nations during the first five months of this year. This amounted to only 3.5 per cent of the total exports to all countries. Mexico received more than half the amount we exported to neutrals.

FIRST AMERICAN ORDINATION SERVICE IN ENGLAND

(By the Associated Press)
London, Aug. 24.—For the first time in the history of England, an American bishop has conducted an ordination service on the soil of the British Isles. It was strictly wartime ceremony, being the installation of Warren Dudley, an American, as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church. The service took place at the headquarters of the American Y. M. C. A. in London, in the presence of a number of notable ministers of various denominations both English and American.

GIRLS OF FRANCE LIKE AMERICANS

Paris, Aug. 24.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—"Let me give you a little advice," said a writer in the Intransigeant, addressing himself to the maidens of France. "There are many Americans in France and you know very well how charming they find you. They find our women more disposed to be helpful workers with them than those of other countries, they appreciate you highly, but my dear little French girls, you must not be frivolous. Americans are grown-up children, somewhat ingenuous, a trifle puritan, and quite ready to marry you, and an American husband and a French wife make an excellent married couple. So do not waste the chance of that marked purit which is so seldom found among the men of ancient Europe."

Another writer in the Petit Journal, welcomes the report that American-French marriages are becoming very common, as excellent from the idyllic and sentimental point of view also for the fusion of the two races, but expresses some anxiety as to its effect on the repopulation of France. He fears that when the war is over, the American husbands will carry away their French wives across the Atlantic and France will lose that many households, a loss that the country is in no condition to stand.

The writer quotes a letter that he has received from a French girl, engaged to an American, in which she says that she had laid down no conditions in accepting the proposal but had made her fiancé understand that after the war there would be work for every one in France and so he had promised to remain in France and if children came they should be French citizens.

"There's a good example," comments the article, "Let all French girls follow it. America will not be perceptibly poorer and France will be enriched. It is one more kind act that we can beg from our allies and one they are not likely to refuse."

Good appetite, vigor and cheerful spirits follow the use of Prickly Ash Bitters. It purifies the stomach, liver and bowels and makes life worth living. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., special agents.

ENGLISH GIRLS WED AMERICANS

(By the Associated Press)
With the American Army in England, Aug. 24.—When the American army returns to the United States there will go with it, or at about that time, many women who, though British born, have become American citizens. They have married American soldiers and the indications are that their example will be followed by many others.

Marriage of men while in the service is not regarded with favor either by the war department or by officers at headquarters in England but consent to a wedding has been given in more than one camp.

So far the marriages have been between the English girls and the enlisted men, and in some cases the bride has worn the uniform of one of the many women's auxiliary corps of the British army. In such cases the girl has continued in the service of her country and the good-byes when orders have come for moving have included the expression of the hope that they may "see each other in France."

That "all in" feeling so common in hot weather is not due to heat alone, but to an unhealthy condition in the liver, stomach and bowels. To prevent a spell of sickness take Prickly Ash Bitters, it is an excellent system cleanser and regulator. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., special agents.

AN APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS OF ADA.

Up until the 20th of August, 1918, the city was without an adequate ordinance pertaining to the cutting of weeds and keeping the alleys clean, generally, but upon that date, Ordinance No. 401 was duly passed and published in the News the following day. This new ordinance was carefully drawn, and provides a legal way of compelling the owners or occupants of lots in the city to keep all weeds cut down, and trash removed from their premises, and it is the intention of the mayor to enforce the ordinance.

We are making this appeal to the citizens to cut the weeds in their gardens, back alleys and premises at once, before we are compelled to give you notice by a special policeman. Please have enough civic pride to keep your own premises clean, and "your premises" means your part of the alley back of your house. Ada can never be a real nice city until we keep our yards and alleys clean. Much good has been accomplished in the downtown districts, and now we appeal to the citizens to keep their premises clean, likewise. Otherwise, special policemen will be detailed to round up the violators of Ordinance No. 401. We sincerely hope this will not have to be done.

W. E. CONGER,
Mayor of the City of Ada,
Oklahoma.

DROUTH BROKEN BY TWO INCH RAIN

The drouth was broken at Ada Friday night by a downpour amounting to 2.31 inches and the prospect is good for still more. While the rain came late and crops cut short, there is still time for some fall crops and gardens if the frost comes late. Stock water has been very scarce but as this rain fell slowly it was quickly absorbed and it will probably take another to fill all the water holes.

County Demonstrator Hill believes the rain of Friday night and Saturday will be of much benefit to cotton. He reports quite a lot of cotton still growing and the downpour will be of great benefit. Late corn and pastures have been greatly aided.

Safe Blown at Sasakwa.

The sheriff's office was advised early Tuesday morning that the safe in the office of Jim Fleet at Sasakwa had been blown some time during Monday night. The safe was an old one used only for keeping a few papers and nothing of value was there. It is stated, however, that the safe is a complete wreck.

Some time during early Sunday morning two horses were stolen near Ada in Pontotoc county. Advice from Sheriff Duncan stated that these parties might be coming in this direction, and it is generally thought that the parties who stole the horses also blew the safe at Sasakwa.

Diligent search has been made for the culprits, but so far without results. They were trailed by officers from Sasakwa to Spaulding, but the extremely dry ground prevented them from following further. We work Capital-Democrat.

Joke on Editor.
A well-known author, says a New York paragrapher, submitted an article on Zola to a magazine editor. The editor rejected it on the recommendation of one of his assistants, who said it was too pessimistic. He wrote to the author "If you have something else let me have it." The author cut the article into two parts. One he titled "Tolstoy." The other "Balzac." Instead of the works of Zola he substituted the work of Tolstoy and Balzac. The editor accepted both articles.

CONSTIPATION

And Saw Starch Cured This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before."

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it. NO-125

Sheriff Duncan and other county officials are determined to rid the city of all vagrants and as a result two cases were up for trial in Justice Brown's court Saturday. During the past week a determined state-wide campaign has been made, and is still being made, to make Oklahoma 100 percent true and Pontotoc county must stand at the top, so believes Sheriff Duncan.

J. A. McCord was in from Ahloso today and reported a fine rain in that community. He brought to the News office four stalks of June corn with nine well matured ears thereon. The corn was grown with only one rain, which fell about the 24th of June. He has seven acres of this corn and with the rain of last night tonight filling it out, Mr. McCord is sure of a considerable crop.

Human Development.

Man has been on the earth perhaps some twenty odd thousand years, and it is only the last three thousand that we are much concerned with. To suppose that a modern Englishman must necessarily be at a higher stage of mental development than an ancient Greek is almost the same mistake as to argue that Browning must be a better poet than Wordsworth because he came later. If the soul, or the brain, of man is developing, it is not developing as fast or so steadily as all that.—Gilbert Murray in the Century Magazine.
